From John and Elaine Blackburn

"We came to Whittlesey 12 years ago. We were at once welcomed into the fellowship of the four churches in our benefice. John had the privilege of officiating and preaching in all of the four churches and so we came to know lots of people. We have thoroughly enjoyed participating in church and secular social events.

We have decided it is now appropriate to go to live in Histon, close to our daughter, Rachael whom many of you have met.

Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for all the cards, and for your good wishes. They have been quite overwhelming. You have been wonderful to us and will remain regularly in our prayers. Saint Andrew's Histon has a hard act to follow."
