Holiday at Home report from Christine

"Holiday at Home"(held at Queen Street Church) was much appreciated by our guests again this year. Comments from four of our church members who attended as guests included:

"It was wonderful to meet other older people and be able to chat."

"The meals were lovely and the way we were looked after was fantastic. All the helpers were so kind."

"I'm amazed at how much work goes into preparing for the three days."

"I loved the story telling - it was so funny and the ukuleles were so good and it was nice to join in (with the singing)."

"I like my bottle light and I'm going to show it to my grandchildren when they come for a sleepover."

Thank you to all our volunteers who worked tirelessly to help our guests enjoy the three days. Thank you to those who worked in the kitchen preparing meals and refreshments throughout the day, and to those who brought delicious home made cakes and biscuits for the afternoon teas. Lastly, but most importantly, thank you to everyone who prayed for us all. "Holiday at Home" was a success.
