It needs to be our daily task to pray for the world in which we live.
To offer intercession to God our Father, through Jesus the Son by the power of the Holy Spirit.

As we do this we place before Him the needs of our world and look for His response. It is not that God requires us to tell Him what is going on, He knows this already. He wants us to demonstrate to Him that we know what is going on. In knowing we ask questions. What can be done to make the world a better place? What can I do to make my part of the world a better place? Where is God in our experience of life?

When a disaster or tragedy strikes we tend to focus on what happened ie. the eruption of a volcano or the detonation of a bomb. All too easily we fail to see the acts of compassion, courage and selflessness. When we do direct our attention to these acts of pure humanity we should see God at work. God answering prayer and being alongside victims and those helping them.

So commit yourself to daily prayers of intercession for the world in which you live and have your being. Allow God to show you His grace at work.

God bless you all
Revd Nigel
