Partnership for Missional Church

Set your Church Free. God is at Work, Your Church can join in

Partnership for Missional Church is a three year process that work alongside local churches to help them discover:

- ▶ The release that comes from truly relying on God
- ▶ The liberty that comes from taking the time to listen
- ▶ The confidence that comes from genuinely connecting with our community
- ▶ The impact of innovating, risk-taking and not being afraid to experiment
- ▶ The lightness of living out our call as a church

There are 3 phases to the process:

- ▶ Phase 1:
  - ▶ Listening, paying attention and discovering where God is already at work. We use “dwelling in the word” as a spiritual practice to help us become naturally missional rather than doing missional activities.
- ▶ Phase 2:
  - ▶ Experimenting. Based on what we have discovered about ourselves and our communities in phase one.
- ▶ Phase 3:
  - ▶ This phase is about recognising what God’s particular mission call for our church is and figuring out how we will put this into action. (Partnership for Missional Church)
  - ▶ Please note that the outcome might be different for different local church congregation.

Where do we begin?

- ▶ Administering a “CONGREGATIONAL DISCOVERY QUESTIONNAIRE” across our church and wider community. This will involve 8 questions, which will be asked by members of our listening/steering group or others. We are expected to administer 24 questionnaires. Responses will be anonymised and fed back to the Church Mission Society who will input other data and return to each parishes. This result will then be shared with the wider congregation.
- ▶ It is recommended that another event be an event charting our churches time line. This is an opportunity for us to highlight any important historical facts, any positive memories but also an opportunity for us to talk about any challenging memories.

Come on June 26th to the Team Council Meeting. 7.30 p.m. in St Andrew’s Hall

All Welcome.

God bless to you all. Revd Nigel and Revd Staffan
