August is a popular month for taking holidays. We all need a break from our normal routines:

- To have time for ourselves and our families and friends
- To recharge our batteries
- To relax

A holiday may also give us space to take stock of our lives and ponder on what we truly value.

Hopefully, as Christians:

- We value our faith and hold God at the centre of our lives.
- We nurture our relationship with God by focussing on the life and teaching of Jesus Christ.
- We are open to the power of the Holy Spirit, God, working within us. It is through this power that the fruit of the Spirit develops and enables us to grow in love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

There may be times though when we have no choice but to take stock of our lives e.g. through illness, a stay in hospital, being housebound. Then there is the time that we put aside specifically, e.g. a quiet day, a retreat.

May you enjoy your holiday whenever, wherever, whatever.

May you also 'Go well' in the knowledge of the love and peace of God which passes all understanding.

God bless to you all. Revd Nigel and Revd Staffan
